

Do you have trouble approaching your neighbours about the gospel? Are you looking for an effective way to present the gospel without watering down its content? Would you like to know how to illustrate some of the essential biblical concepts? If you answer "Yes" to even one of the above, we can help you.

THE EMMAUS ROAD MESSAGE

TERM EVANGELISM SEMINAR

LEARN HOW TO SHARE YOUR FAITH!

TERM is the acronym for "The Emmaus Road Message." It was how Jesus explained the gospel to the two disciples on the road to Emmaus on Easter morning (Luke 24:13-25). The TERM Seminar is uniquely designed to train participants how to conduct worldview evangelism with neighbours, friends, colleagues and Bible studies.

A TERM Seminar functions on the principle that "as you are taught, so you will teach." Taught by those who are "actually doing it" a TERM Seminar models a highly effective approach to communicating the gospel. Over 70 visual aids that help make the gospel message clearer will be demonstrated.

The TERM Evangelism Seminar is running from 21-23 March 2012. At the seminar, you will have a unique opportunity to be equipped to share your faith with the following focuses:

- Starting in the Old Testament
- Focusing on the stories relating to the gospel
- Assuming people you teach know little or nothing about the Bible

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

John R. Cross is the General Director of GoodSeed International. GOODSEED is an equipping ministry specializing in Worldview evangelism and discipleship. To that end, GoodSeed creates tools and provides training for teaching those who have no previous knowledge of the Bible.

Prior to working with GoodSeed, John served for 23 years with New Tribes Mission. He has directed six award winning videos including "EE-TAOW!" and has authored seven books. John and his family are from Canada.

WORKSHOP ORGANIZED BY NTM SINGAPORE AND GOODSEED INTERNATIONAL | SUPPORTED BY TWR

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

TERM participants are taught how to lead a small group Bible study using GoodSeed Tools. Background information, tips on how to teach, ideas to illustrate points, ways to stay on track, and tactics to defuse potential problems are all addressed.

- Lead an outreach Bible Study
Learn what's involved in getting studies started and what happens to 'your' schedule.
- Background information
Knowing the overall message of the Bible yourself prepares you to teach effectively.
- Ideas on how to illustrate points
Many visual aids used and explained help you to communicate this message clearly.
- Defuse potential problems
Drawing from the experience from veteran teachers, learn how to avoid difficulties.
- Use GoodSeed Worldview Evangelism Tools
We believe that one style is not for everybody, and so we have developed several different tools for teaching.
- Tips on how to teach
Learn what to do and what not to do.
- Ways to stay on track
How do you answer the many (and sometimes tempting) questions along the way?
- How to use visual aids
With several different ways to use visual aids, find what works best for you.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- How long is a TERM Seminar?
Teaching time averages 22 hours. A TERM seminar is an intense time of learning with lecture periods averaging 40 to 50 minutes.
- Who is a typical attendee?
The seminar is designed for believers. We regularly have attendees who consider themselves beginners in sharing their faith. Pastors, as well as home and foreign missionaries have found the seminar highly profitable.
- Can I miss sessions?
Participants are expected to attend the entire seminar.
We ask that no audio or video recordings be made of the sessions.
